

Exercises PASSIVE, 2ahit

Turn into passive

1. Will you send the e-mail tomorrow?
2. I have forgotten my mother's birthday.
3. The Aborigines in Austria welcomed us in a friendly way.
4. Someone had stolen his new car.
5. You must do your homework as soon as possible.
6. We were doing it the following day.
7. How many books has she written so far?
8. When will they clear out your room ?
9. His firm didn't send him to Arabia.
10. Shouldn't they forbid this brutal film?

a: Put into passive

- 1: My partner will send you the fax.
- 2: My parents give me some pocket money.
- 3: The mayor promised new flats to people.
- 4: The teacher will show slides to students.
- 5: The bank will lend them enough money.
- 6: The manager gave them a discount.

b: Fill in the blanks with active or passive in any appropriate tense.

1. The game (win) by the other team tomorrow. They are a lot better than we are.
2. There was a terrible accident on a busy downtown street yesterday. Dozens of people saw it, including my friend, who (interview) by the police.
3. Yesterday, a bank robber (catch) by the police.
4. Tom (inform) by his teacher that his marks should better improve.
5. Last night my car (steal) from the parking lot.